The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 5. to Saturday November 9. 1745.

St. James's, November 9.

THE following Addreſs of the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Pembroke, having been tranſmitted by Sir Arthur Owen, Bart. to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of your Majeſty's Lieutetenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Pembroke, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, the 8th Day of October 1745.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Pembroke, in Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Joy upon your Majeſty's ſafe Return into your Britiſh Dominions, at a Time when your Royal Preſence was greatly wanted, and moſt earneſtly deſired, by all your faithful Subjects.

That our old and inveterate Enemies of France and Rome ſhould again renew their pernicious Attempts upon our Religion, Laws and Liberties, by promoting an unnatural Rebellion in theſe your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, is what raiſes our utmoſt Indignation. But that any of our Fellow Subjects ſhould be ſo ſenſeleſs of the valuable Privileges they enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gentle Government, as to concur in theſe deſtructive Meaſures; and, in Deſpite of all their Obligations to the contrary, labour, at the Hazard of their Lives, to compleat the utter Ruin of their Country, is indeed, lamentable and aſtoniſhing. We, induced by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Gratitude and Intereſt, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Perſon and Government; and of our firm Purpoſes and Reſolutions, to exert to the utmoſt, every Power that God has put into our Hands, in Defence of the ſame. And may the Almighty, who has hitherto ſignally guarded your ſacred Perſon in Dangers, and ſo often delivered this Nation from Popery and Slavery, bleſs and proſper your Arms and Undertakings at this critical Juncture, and long preſerve your valuable Life in the full Enjoyment of future Peace and Tranquillity.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Air, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Argyle, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The moſt humble and ſincere Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Air, met at Glaſgow, October 1, 1745.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Air, humbly beg Leave, upon this firſt Opportunity of our Meeting together ſince your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in theſe your Dominions, to expreſs the ſincere and mighty Joy we felt upon that happy Occaſion.

At the ſame Time it filled our Hearts with the deepeſt Concern and Regret, that your Majeſty ſhould then have found a Part of our Native Country, engaged in a moſt treaſonable Inſurrection againſt your Perſon and Government. We

[Price Six Pence.]

We have ſince that Time beheld with the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence, yet blacker Scenes, a Rebellious Army of bigotted Papiſts and of infatuated Proteſtants, the inveterate Enemies of our preſent happy Conſtitution, and ſome of whom no Oaths can bind, and no Favours can gain, headed by a popiſh Son of a popiſh Pretender, advance ſo far as to invade the Capital of this Part of your Dominions, and come ſo near to our Borders, as to ſubject this loyal City, wherein we are now aſſembled, to a grievous Oppreſſion, which they were not able to reſiſt.

But even in this critical Juncture and Situation, when Expreſſions of loyal Duty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government may expoſe us to cruel Reſentments, we cannot forbear giving you the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances of our inviolable Fidelity and Allegiance: An Allegiance, which, under God, is inſeparably connected with the Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties, and which we hope God will give us the Conſtancy to maintain amidſt the utmoſt Perils.

Tho' an indelible Stain of Diſloyalty, and of the vileſt Ingratitude muſt lie upon ſome Parts of our Country, yet it is with Pleaſure we can aſſure your Majeſty, that almoſt the whole People in theſe Weſtern Shires wherein we live, ſtill preſerve a ſteady Fidelity and Affection to your Royal Perſon and Government: So that a very ſmall and inconſiderable Number from theſe Parts have joined in this daring and wicked Attempt againſt your Majeſty and their Country; and of theſe few, none of them, ſo far as we know, are Members of our Preſbyterian Communion: All of us being deeply ſenſible of the great Bleſſings we have enjoyed under the gracious and mild Adminiſtration of your Majeſty and of your Royal Father. And that next to the Protection of the Divine Providence, it is to your Majeſty, and to the Succeſſion of your Royal Family in the Proteſtant Line, that we muſt owe the ſecure Enjoyment of all that ſhould be valuable and dear to us in this World.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as it has been, it ſhall be our conſtant Care to inſpire our People with theſe juſt Sentiments: And next to that chief Part of our Duty of teaching them the Fear of God, we ſhall animate them to honour their Proteſtant King.

That the only wiſe God may direct your Counſels, and the Lord of Hoſts may go forth with your Armies and Fleets, and particularly crown them with a ſpeedy Succeſs in quelling this bold and dangerous Rebellion amongſt us, to the firmer Eſtabliſhment of your Throne; and that after a long and happy Reign over a loyal and free People, you may inherit an incorruptible Crown; and the Crown of theſe Kingdoms and the Defence of the Proteſtant Religion may deſcend to your Royal Iſſue, to lateſt Poſterity, are and ſhall be the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt humble,
moſt obedient and loyal Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glaſgow and Air.

Signed in our Preſence, in our Name,
and at our Appointment, by James Stirling, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Hereford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Windford, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Hereford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majeſty's ancient and ever loyal City of Hereford, beg Leave to take this ſeaſonable Opportunity of declaring our Duty and Loyalty to your Royal Perſon, and our Attachment to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State: And that, as your Majeſty's regal Authority and the Liberty of your Subjects are ſo blended together, that it is abſolutely neceſſary for the Security of the one that the other ſhould be ſupported; we, on our Parts, will do the utmoſt in our Power to ſuppreſs all Attempts that are or may be made by the reſtleſs Ambition of our common Enemies, in Favour of arbitrary Power and a popiſh Pretender; and to defend your Royal Perſon, under whoſe Protection and auſpicious Government we hope long to enjoy our eſtabliſh'd Religion, Rights and Privileges.

Given under our common Seal this Sixteenth
Day of October, in the Year of our Lord,
One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Charles Fitzroy, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which

Addreſs

Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Borough of Thetford, Norfolk and Suffolk. } The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the ſaid Burgh.

WE the Corporation of the Burgh of Thetford, with all Humility beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to this Kingdom; the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in taking Cape Breton; and on the general Aſſociations and voluntary Subſcriptions which appear from all Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions, in Support of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government, and the Preſervation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, at this unhappy Conjuncture, when the whole is threatned by an horrid and execrable Rebellion in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, by the Aid and Aſſiſtance of foreign Powers, encouraged (as is feared) by ſome of our Fellow Subjects. In Deteſtation and utter Abborrence of which treaſonable Practices, we do moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, in Defence of your Royal Perſon and Government, and of our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Conſtitution, moſt readily venture our Lives and Fortunes, and every thing that is dear to us, as we hope for the Bleſſing of Almighty God, and the Favour and Protection of your ſacred Perſon, as our rightful and lawful Sovereign.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto ſet our common Seal this 19th Day of October, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Michell, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boſton, in the County of Lincoln, with Hearts full of Affection and Duty, beg Leave to expreſs our Joy on your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and the happy Succeſs that has attended your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton; a Conqueſt of the greateſt Importance to the Trade, and conſequently to the Welfare of this Nation.

We are too deeply ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy from your Majeſty's Government, in the Protection of our civil and religious Rights, not to look with the higheſt Indignation on the preſent Attempts, formed to deprive us of thoſe Bleſſings in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, ſupported by the ever ſecret, tho' now open Enemy to theſe Nations.

Permit us, therefore, moſt Gracious Sovereign, upon this Occaſion, to renew the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances to your Majeſty, of our unfeigned Attachment to the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe; and that we are, and always ſhall be ready upon this and every other Occaſion, to hazard all that is dear and valuable to us, not only in Defence of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, but alſo in Support of your glorious Deſigns for the Liberties of Europe.

We moſt earneſtly hope, and doubt not, but that your Majeſty's known Wiſdom and Prudence will baffle theſe pernicious Attempts of your Enemies, and continue to theſe Nations, in your Royal Houſe, the Bleſſings we enjoy, to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Repreſentatives in Parliament, Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Soak of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. John Lord Manners, and Sir John Cuſt, Bart. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Comburgeſſes, Burgeſſes, Repreſentatives in Parliament, Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Soak of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, having the Safety and Welfare of your Royal Perſon and Family moſt ſincerely at Heart, beg Leave, at this preſent Juncture, with a moſt unfeigned and affectionate Loyalty, to acknowledge ourſelves ſincerely attached to your Preſervation and Intereſt, when our Religion, Laws and Liberties, are not only threatned, but moſt wickedly invaded by a popiſh Pretender, and every thing which is dear and valuable to us in Danger to fall a Sacrifice to that uſurping and tyrannical Power.

As theſe are Bleſſings of the utmoſt Conſequence, and which (under God) we are oblig'd to your Majeſty's gracious and prudent Protection for, we can't help expreſſing the greateſt Indignation and Abhorrence of the infamous and wicked Attempts, which manifeſtly tend to the Subverſion of theſe ineſtimable Benefits, and are ready to reſign our Lives and Fortunes, rather than permit ourſelves to become Subjects to ſuch a baſe and illegal Conſtitution.

Your Majeſty's late Succeſs in the Weſt Indies, gives us infinite Joy, as it is of infinite Conſequence, and therefore merits the higheſt Eſteem of every faithful Subject.

May the ſame Succeſs attend all your Undertakings, and render us to lateſt Poſterity the happy Subjects of your illuſtrious Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Barrymore, and Sir Roger Bradſhaigh, Bart. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, bing introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaſter, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the entire Conqueſt of the Iſland of Cape Breton, which muſt in its Conſequences be of the utmoſt Advantage in extending the Trade and Commerce of your Majeſty's Subjects.

The Elevation of the Grand Duke of Tuſcany to the Imperial Throne (which hath been chiefly owing to your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and powerful Aſſiſtance) is an Event which demands our moſt grateful Acknowledgements, as we are ſenſible it will be an effectual Means of curbing the dangerous and ambitious Schemes of thoſe who are always aiming at deſtroying the Balance of Power in Europe.

Permit us, Sir, to declare our utter Abhorrence of that unnatural Rebellion lately broke out in Scotland; a Rebellion raiſed by ſome of your traiterous Subjects, fomented and ſupported by your Majeſty's declared Enemies, the Grand Diſturbers of Europe, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

And we do hereby aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, upon this and all other Occaſions, exert ourſelves to the utmoſt of our Powers in Defence of your Majeſty, againſt all your open and ſecret Enemies.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the common Seal of the ſaid Borough to be hereto affixed, this 12th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Borough of Truro, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Charles Hamilton, Eſq; and the Hon. Edward Boſcawen, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Truro, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AT the ſame Time we congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Kingdoms, we beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence of thoſe Perſons, who, during your Abſence, have diſturbed the Peace of them, by an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of an abjur'd Papiſt.

We are not ignorant, that as this wicked Attempt was formed, ſo it is carried on under the Influence of our moſt inveterate foreign Enemy, who, diſappointed in his Views by your Majeſty's Councils, and diſtreſſed in his Colonies and Trade by your Arms, now makes Uſe of the Pretender and his Adherents, vainly hoping by ſuch Inſtruments to propagate the erroneous Doctrines of Popery, and eſtabliſh ſlaviſh and arbitrary Principles of Government among us. But we are deſirous to aſſure your Majeſty on our Parts, that a true Senſe of our Duty, a juſt Eſteem and Love for your ſacred Perſon and Family, and a hearty Zeal and Affection for our Religion and Liberties, will excite us to oppoſe at all Times every Attack upon our preſent, free, and legal Government: In this critical Juncture in particular, your Majeſty may command our Services, whatever Hazard, either in our Lives or Fortunes, we may undergo in the Performance of them.

Given under the common Seal of the ſaid Borough, this 9th Day of October, 1745,

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, in the County

County of Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Jonathan Raſhleigh and William Wardour, Eſqrs, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and the Reduction of Cape Breton by your Majeſty's Forces, are Events on which we moſt humbly beg Leave to offer your Majeſty our ſincereſt Congratulations. May the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and the Retention of that moſt important, moſt invaluable Place, be no leſs the Objects of your Majeſty's Care, than of your People's Wiſhes!

The daring and open Attempts of your Majeſty's profeſſed and inveterate Enemies, in Favour of the Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown, have ſo manifeſt and fatal a Tendency to the Subverſion of our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State, as muſt fill every loyal Breaſt with Horror and Deteſtation, and rouſe in every Engliſhman a true Spirit of Duty and Zeal for the Security of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, as the Defender of our Faith, and of your Majeſty's Government, as the Protection of our Liberties and Properties.

Thus ſenſible of our Duty and Intereſt, and animated with this Spirit, we implore your Majeſty's Acceptance of a Tender of our utmoſt Services in the Support of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the Maintenance of our Religion and Laws, and the tranſmitting them and our Liberties, with the Crown of this Realm, to your Majeſty's lateſt Progeny.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Clergymen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Strabane, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Clergymen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Strabane.

WE the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Clergymen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Strabane, beg Leave at this time to approach your Majeſty with Hearts full of the warmeſt Zeal, Duty and Gratitude.

It is with the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence, that we have heard of an impious and unnatural Rebellion, ſtirred up in North Britain againſt your ſacred Majeſty, in Favour of an abjur'd popiſh Pretender. And it is with extream Grief we are informed that it hath ſpread over a great Part of that Kingdom, and found therein too many ungrateful perjur'd Abettors.

As we have long enjoyed all the Sweets of Liberty under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and are fully convinced, that all that can be valuable to a free People, our Religion, our Liberties and Properties, do depend, under God, upon the Eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty in the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and of your Royal and Illuſtrious Family in the Succeſſion; we do, from Hearts overflowing with filial Piety and Thankfulneſs, ſolemnly vow to Almighty God, to your Majeſty, and to our Free-born Fellow Subjects, that we will ſtand by and ſupport your moſt ſacred Majeſty with our utmoſt Force and Power; and count the moſt deſirable Enjoyments of Life, and even Life itſelf, but as a ſmall Thing to expoſe in Defence of your Majeſty, and the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under you.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that there are, within a few Miles around this Borough, many Thouſand Proteſtants, all good Men and true, who have the ſame Principles and hearty Affections to your Majeſty.

As we have an entire Dependance upon the Vigilance and Activity of his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, whom your Majeſty in great Wiſdom and Goodneſs towards Ireland, hath been pleaſed to appoint Lord Lieutenant over us, we comfort ourſelves with the Hopes of being ſeaſonably ſupplied with ſufficient Quantities of Arms and Ammunition, which at this Juncture we ſtand in great Need of. And we do faithfully promiſe, that we will, with all poſſible Chearfulneſs, uſe them whereſoever your Majeſty ſhall call us, in Defence of your ſacred Majeſty, and in avenging you on your Enemies.

Given under the publick Seal of the Borough of Strabane, and ſigned with our Hands this 4th Day of October, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Free Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Galway, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented ſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Free Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Galway.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AT this Time, when a wicked and unnatural Rebellion is carried on in North Britain againſt your Majeſty, by a Set of deſperate and ungrateful People, we think it a Duty incumbent upon us, humbly to preſent theſe our repeated Aſſurances of our unſhaken Fidelity and moſt ardent Zeal towards your ſacred Perſon and Government.

When we look back upon the many cruel Attempts heretofore made by the Champions of Rome, to extirpate the Proteſtant Religion out of this Kingdom; more particularly when we reflect on the many Miſeries which our Fathers underwent during the ſhort tyrannical Power of a late bigotted popiſh Prince here, the Memory of theſe tragical Events, which can never be forgotten by any true Iriſh Proteſtant, cannot but greatly endear to us the invaluable Bleſſings of Peace, Liberty, and Proſperity, which we have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government; and at the ſame Time fill us with a juſt Concern and Horror, at the preſent wicked Attempt, to obtrude upon us a Perſon nurſed in the Boſom of Popery, and trained up in all her cruel Maxims of civil and religious Tyranny.

And if our juſt Abhorrence of ſuch an Attempt can admit of any Addition, it muſt be from this Reflection, that it is made at a Time, when your Majeſty is glorioufly ſtruggling, not for our Liberties alone, but for the Liberties of Europe; in which glorious Cauſe we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, as Occaſion ſhall require, ſupport your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, on which alone, under God, our Happineſs depends.

Given under our Hands, and Seal of our Corporation, this Seventeenth Day of October, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, and the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, and Clergy reſiding therein, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, in the Kingdom of Ireland, and the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, and Clergy reſiding therein.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, in your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, and the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, and Clergy reſiding therein, cannot hear without the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence, of a moſt unnatural Rebellion broke out in Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, and the audacious and inſolent Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies, to place a bigotted popiſh Pretender on the Throne of theſe Realms, which we hope will never be filled but by one of your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

Your Majeſty may depend on our Sincerity, when we aſſure your Majeſty, we are ready to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government; for it is to your Majeſty's mild and gracious Adminiſtration we owe all the Bleſſings that can be dear to Mankind.

The following Addreſs of the Burgo Maſter, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commoners of the Corporation of Maryborough, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Burgo Maſter, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commoners of the Corporation of Maryborough, in the Queen's County and Kingdom of Ireland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgo Maſter, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commoners of Maryborough, being now met together in an Aſſembly of our Corporation, cannot allow ourſelves to ſeparate without declaring to your Majeſty, and the World, the Indignation and Abhorrence which we have conceived at the moſt wicked and daring Attempt which is begun and carried on in Scotland, by ſome of your Majeſty's traiterous Subjects, jects, ſupported and encourarged by the common Enemies of Europe, to deprive your Majeſty of your Crown, to ſubvert our Religion and Liberties, to advance a popiſh Pretender to the Throne of theſe Realms; and in Conſequence of that, to entail the two greateſt Plagues that can befall Mankind, Superſtition and Slavery, upon us and our Poſterity.

We ſhould think ourſelves unworthy of the Bleſſings which we enjoy under our free Conſtitution, and your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration, if we did not, upon this Occaſion, find ourſelves animated with the warmeſt Zeal, and moſt undaunted Spirit, to aſſert and defend your Majeſty's undoubted Rights; to ſupport and ſtrengthen your Government; to preſerve the Succeſſion to the Crown in your illuſtrious Houſe; to diſappoint and defeat the Enemies of your Majeſty and your Kingdoms, and to ſecure the Religion, Liberty and Welfare of our Country. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, with the utmoſt Sincerity, that nothing in our Power ſhall be ever wanting that can contribute to theſe Purpoſes.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, in the County of Corke and Kingdom of Ireland, ſealed with our Corporation Seal the Third Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of your remarkable Proteſtant Borough of Bandon Bridge, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our unfeigned Joy on account of your Majeſty's ſafe and happy Arrival into your Britiſh Dominions; and to aſſure your Majeſty of the juſt Abhorrence we have of the evil and wicked Machinations of the Enemies of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, in fomenting Diviſions amongſt your Subjects, and exciting them to rebel againſt ſo good, ſo juſt, ſo mild and merciful a Sovereign, in Favour of a popiſh, bigotted, and long abjur'd Pretender, from whom nothing can be reaſonably expected but Cruelty and Tyranny, accompanied with many ſuch-like diſmal and neceſſary Attendants of arbitrary Power. We think ourſelves in a particular Manner obliged to return Thanks to the great Diſpoſer of all Things, that there has not as yet appeared any Thing like a Spirit of Diſcord or Sedition, influencing the Minds of your Subjects in this Kingdom; and we truſt in his Divine Providence, for the uniting all your Majeſty's Subjects in the ſtrict Bands of Loyalty and Allegiance, not doubting, but that the ſame Almighty Power will ſoon fruſtrate and defeat all the wicked Devices of your Majeſty's foreign and domeſtick Enemies.

We farther beg Leave to repeat our late Aſſurances given your Majeſty of our moſt inviolable Attachments to the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State; and that we are reſolutely determined, at the Hazard of every Thing that is near and dear to us, to ſupport and defend your Majeſty and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your moſt illuſtrious Houſe, againſt all Pretenders and Attempts whatſoever.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Newtown Lemavady, in the Kingdom of Ireland, together with the Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Country adjoining, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To his moſt Excellent Majeſty King George the Second.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Newtown Lemavady, in the Kingdom of Ireland, together with the Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Country adjoining.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Newtown Lemavady, together with the Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Country adjacent, do beg Leave to expreſs our Joy upon your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Dominions, after your glorious Endeavours upon the Continent, to reſtore the Liberties of Europe.

We have heard with Surprize and Indignation of an unnatural Rebellion in your Majeſty's Kingdom of Scotland, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, nurſed up at Rome, a Tool of France and Spain: And we moſt zealouſly aſſure your Majeſty, that we look upon the Attempt with the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence, being firmly reſolved to ſupport your Majeſty and your Royal Family, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, againſt him and all his Adherents.

Beſides the Duty and Allegiance we owe to your ſacred Majeſty, we know there is no poſſible Security for our Religion, Liberty and Property, but under the Protection of your Majeſty and the Succeſſion of your Family. We are thoroughly ſenſible that no People upon Earth ever enjoyed more fully the Advantages of a juſt, equitable and mild Government, than all the Subjects of theſe Nations have done under your Majeſty's Royal Father; and we truſt they will continue to do the ſame under your Deſcendants till Time ſhall be no more.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Community, Clergy and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Community, Clergy and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival into your Britiſh Dominions, and on the late Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in America, by taking the important Fortreſs of Cape Breton.

It is with the greateſt Aſtoniſhment and Indignation, that we hear of the Landing in Scotland of the Son of the Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown: We cannot comprehend by what Encouragement from any of your Majeſty's Subjects, he could be prevailed upon to engage in ſo deſperate and inſolent an Enterprize, nor how he could expect to find Adherents ſufficient to diſturb the internal Repoſe of your Kingdoms, amongſt a People abounding with all the Bleſſings which true Religion and Liberty can beſtow.

From the Knowledge we have of your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, we build the ſtrongeſt Hopes, that your loyal Subjects of Great Britain will (before this reaches your Royal Preſence) have made him and his Accomplices feel the Effects of their Raſhneſs and Treaſon. We could not however refrain from giving you this Teſtimony of our Fidelity and Zeal; and we moſt humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that if (contrary to our preſent preſent Apprehenſions) the Danger ſhould ſpread and become more general, your loyal City of Londonderry, ever mindful of the Happineſs they enjoy, and firm in their Attachment to your Majeſty, as they were to your Royal Anceſtor King William the Third, of glorious Memory, are ready to ſacrifice in your Service their Fortunes and their Lives, and with their laſt Breath will pray for your Majeſty's Welfare and Succeſs againſt that perfidious Nation France, and all other your Enemies.

Sealed with our Seal of Office, the 17th Day of September, 1745.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE taking into our moſt ſerious Conſideration the juſt and neceſſary Wars, in which we are engaged with the Crown of Spain and the French King, and the unnatural Rebellion begun in one Part of this our Kingdom; and putting our Truſt in Almighty God that he will vouchſafe a ſpecial Bleſſing on our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have reſolved, and do, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Faſt and Humiliation be obſerved throughout that Part of our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Wedneſday the Eighteenth Day of December next; that ſo both we and our People may humble ourſelves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon for our Sins; and may, in the moſt devout and ſolemn Manner, ſend our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majeſty, for averting thoſe heavy Judgments, which our manifold Sins and Provocations have moſt juſtly deſerved; and imploring his Bleſſing and Aſſiſtance on our Arms, and for reſtoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Proſperity to us, and our Kingdoms. And we do ſtrictly charge and command, that the ſaid Publick Faſt be reverently and devoutly obſerved by all our loving Subjects in England, our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of ſuch Puniſhment, as we may juſtly inflict on all ſuch as contemn and neglect the Performance of ſo religious and neceſſary a Duty. And for the better and more orderly ſolemnizing the ſame, we have given Directions to the moſt Reverend the Archbiſhops, and the Right Reverend the Biſhops of England, to compoſe a Form of Prayer ſuitable to this Occaſion, to be uſed in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick Worſhip; and to take Care the ſame be timely diſperſed throughout their reſpective Dioceſſes.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of November, 1745, in the Nineteenth Year of our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

Whitehall, November 5.

By Letters of the 3d Inſtant from Berwick, there are Accounts, that upon the 27th paſt, a Party of the Rebels had been at Glaſgow to demand the old Subſidy for the Tobacco brought in ſeven Ships, and juſt then landed at Greenock, which amounted to 10,000 Pounds Sterling: That they had alſo demanded three Years Exciſe upon the Small Beer, which likewiſe amounts to 10,000 Pounds Sterling: That upon the 31ſt paſt, 200 ſmall Carts, in which were ſix Field Pieces, Ammunition, Small Arms, &c. lately landed at Montroſe, and which came over the Firth at H gen's Nook, paſſed by on the Weſt Side of Edinburgh, and went to Dalkeith, attended by two conſiderable Bodies of the Rebels: That the Pretender's Son left Edinburgh about Six that Evening, and came the Length of Pinkie, about four Miles to the Eaſt of that City, with thoſe of the Rebels called the Life-Guards, and lay there that Night: That all their Baggage, ſix Pieces of Six-pounders, and one Field Piece, was to be ſent off that Night or the next Day to Dalkeith, and their whole Army to follow at the ſame Time: That about One o'Clock upon the 1ſt Inſtant, the Pretender's Son proceeded to Dalkeith, from which Place a conſiderable Body of the Highlanders, who called themſelves the advanced Guard, marched that Evening to Pennycook, and another to Loan Head, both which Places are at a ſmall Diſtance from Dalkeith, upon the Road leading Weſtward to Peebles, Moffat, Carliſle, &c. Thoſe advanced Parties gave out, that their whole Army was to follow them the next Day: That the Pretender's Son was to ſet out from Dalkeith upon the 3d, and that they were to march through Annandale to Carliſle: That the better to diſguiſe their Motions, Billets for Quarters had been ſent to Muſſelburgh, Fiſheraw, Inveraſk, Preſtonpans, Tranent, Haddington and other Villages upon the Eaſt Road to Berwick, whilſt conſiderable Numbers were to march by Night to the Weſtward: That they had along with them above 150 Carts and Waggons full of Baggage, beſides great Numbers of Baggage Horſes, and that they gave out that their Intention was to proceed directly into England, to endeavour to ſlip by the Troops under Marſhal Wade, and to get into Lancaſhire.

Whitehall, November 8.

By Advices from the North of the 5th Inſtant, there are Accounts, that the Rebels were marching Southwards towards Langton and Carliſle, as was ſuppoſed, in three different Columns, the Weſtermoſt of which was thought to be their main Body by the Pretender's Son being with them, who was to take his Quarters at Broughton near Peebles, being the Houſe of Murray his Secretary. The middle Column marched by Lauder, Selkirk, and Hawick, and the Eaſternmoſt Column by Kelſo. Marſhal Wade was at Newcaſtle upon the 5th, and upon Advice of the March of the Rebels Southwards, had countermanded the March of the Army under him to Berwick. Several Companies of Foot, as alſo the Baggage of ſeveral Regiments landed at Berwick, had Orders to march to Newcaſtle and to join their Corps. Lord Killmarnock, who ſtiles himſelf Colonel of a Regiment of Horſe, had ſent a Summons upon the 3d Inſtant to the Provoſt of Kelſo, for furniſhing Quarters and Proviſions for 4000 Foot and 1000 Horſe of the Rebels, requiring him alſo to ſend the ſame Orders to the Magiſtrates of Wooller. That on Saturday the 2d, General Gueſt had made a Sally from the Caſtle of Edinburgh, and ſeized about 2000 Loaves, which had been provided for, and were to be ſent after the Rebels, who had with them, as it was ſaid, only four Days Proviſions when they marched. The two Regiments of Dragoons of Hamilton and Ligonier were poſted at Wooller, Whittingham, &c. to obſerve their Motions: They are under the Command of Colonel Ligonier. The Marſhal had ordered the Regiments, who had been quartered in Newcaſtle ſince their Landing, to join and encamp with the other Forces upon the 6th. The Horſe and Dragoons continued at Durham. The Left Column of the Rebels marched upon the 3d Inſtant from Dalkeith and Newbottle to Lauder. The Number of the Rebels who were at Peebles upon the ſame Day amounted to between Four and Five Thouſand, with 150 Cart Loads of Baggage and ſome Artillery. Other Letters mention, that the French Arms, Ammunition and Baggage, &c. landed ſome Time ſince at Montroſe, had been brought to Perth, from whence Horſes had been preſs'd to carry it to Allowa on the 27th paſt, under Pain of Military Execution; that Part of the ſaid Baggage had been ferried over that Night, which was continued the Monday and Tueſday after; but that General Blakeney having had Notice, that the Rear of the Men who conducted it, was to paſs over on the Wedneſday Morning, had diſpatch'd Captain Abercrombie with ſome Soldiers and Countrymen to attack them; which they accordingly did, wounded ſome, took ſeveral Priſoners, ſome Cows, Horſes, and a great deal of Baggage, Arms, &c. with ſome Money, and great Quantities of Letters: That all theſe were brought into Stirling Caſtle between Seven and Eight that Night: That it was reported that there were 24 French Engineers along with the ſaid Baggage, &c. and that Glengyle, with 150 Men and ſeven Pieces of Cannon that had been mounted on the Highlanders Battery at Allowa, was gone to take Poſſeſſion of the Caſtle of Down, five Miles beyond Stirling, and that General Blakeney was preparing to attack them there.

Whitehall, November 9.

By an Expreſs juſt arrived from the North there is an Account, that a Quarter-maſter from the Rebel Army was come the 5th Inſtant to Moffat, to demand Quarters to be ready that Evening for 2000 Foot and 600 Horſe.

Dublin, October 31.

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fired at his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwer'd by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, who were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green: At Noon there was a numerous Concourſe of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction of both Sexes, who appear'd in great Splendour to compliment his Excellency the Lord-Lieutenant, before whom an Ode, ſet to Muſick, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies: At Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy, throughout the City; and at the Caſtle the Ball and the ſeveral Entertainments were extremely regular and magnificent; and the Decorations of the Ball and Supper-Rooms in a new and elegant Taſte: But what added greatly to the Satisfaction of the Company was, that the Dreſs of her Excellency the Counteſs of Cheſterfield, which was particularly rich and beautiful, was entirely of the Manufacture of this Kingdom.

Notice is hereby given to the Petty Officers and Seamen who were on board his Majeſty's Ship Solebay, at the Time of the Capture of the Spaniſh Regiſter Ship the Concordia, that they may receive their reſpective Shares of the ſecond Payment of the ſaid Prize (being for their Share of the regiſter'd Money) at Mr. Richard Bowery's Houſe in Chequer Yard without Aldgate, on Wedneſday the 20th of November Inſtant, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon; and that thence forward, the Shares that ſhall not then have been paid, may be received at the ſame Place, the ſecond Wedneſday in every ſucceeding Month; and that proper Notice will be given in this Paper of the Time when the next Payment will be made.
